SECTION IX. NARRATIVE
On 14 MAY 2008 at approximately 1400 I responded to the Naval Health Clinic New England with (b) (6) for a report of a individual (b) (6) (b) (7)(C) who may have a weapon concealed on his person or in his vehicle (b) (6). Upon arrival we met with (b) (6) who stated that he was contacted by (b) (6) who was worried (b) (6) may have a gun. (b) (6) was informed by (b) (6) at approximately 1313 on 14 MAY 2008 that during group therapy (for Combat Post Traumatic Stress Disorder-PTSD) (b) (6) claimed to have "carried" many times to the sessions. At that point (b) (6) asked (b) (6) if (b) (6) was still on the installation. (b) (6) said he had left but she was going to ask him to return to discuss his statements concerning carrying a gun to group therapy. When (b) (6) returned at approximately 1400 to behavioral health, (b) (6) contacted (b) (6) telling him that (b) (6) had returned and was in their waiting room. (b) (6) then called Navsta-Npt Police in case (b) (6) was indeed armed. Upon further investigation we searched (b) (6) person and found no weapons. We then searched his vehicle and found in the trunk a Beretta 9MM, (25) 9MM ball rounds, (7) hollow point rounds, (2) Full 9MM magazines, (1) empty 15 round magazine, and (5) 9MM Dummy rounds. At that point the weapon was confiscated by (b) (6) and locked in the trunk of his car along with all ammo and magazines. The weapon was broken down in a duty type bag in the trunk of (b) (6) car. (b) (6) stated that he had no harmful intentions with the weapon, and the reason for it being in his trunk was that he had just had a pistol stolen from his home in East Providence and did not wish for it to happen again. (b) (6) was taken into custody for the weapons violation. I took all necessary information and cleared the scene. During transport back to Building 1373 there were no further incidents with (b) (6) was very respectful and cooperative with Police the entire time we were on scene. The case is under investigation and will be forwarded to JAG for follow up.
